

I am astounded by your vote to ease media ownership restrictions. The majority of the American public, including those of us in the business community, have grave concerns about the outcome of this decision and its effect on our democracy.